Mr. W. G. CLEMSON, No. 406 W. Grace St., Richmond, Va., writes.

Expenses pleased to recommend "A. H. C. Tonic." The most rapid recovery was made by a lady named Mrs. Smith. The tonic was used for what is commonly known as change of life. The patient's condition was indeed critical, very nervous, weak and emaciated, with no appetite. Had she been treated with the tonic, she would have recovered and improved with the boiled water, and would be fit for her duties. This tonic is quite strong, so as to give it a powerful effect.

Private Sales.—This week consisted of 115 bushels of Common Old Dark Leaf and Lungs, and 9 bushels of Green River Filters.

The market was very quiet, with some slight movement, with no change than during this season, putting a stop to handling and shipping to market from many points.

C. McL.

Lynchburg, Va.

LYNCHBURG, Mar. 8.—The receipts in our market reached $62,500 pounds this week, swelling the total since October 1, 1889, to $1,000,000. The market is 24¢ per pound during the present last month. The offerings of dark tobaccos were very heavy, and with an active demand prevailing for same, prices continued to be very firm. The winter, rather an upward tendency, Bright tobacco was very quiet, and mostly, but on the whole, fully up to former receipts as regards color. Prices for all grades very stiff.

HOLTH, SCHAFER & CO.

Louisville Tobacco Market.

Louisville, Mar. 8.—Fewer high grade, but larger total sales of new crop burley hit the market to-day, and the severest winter weather this season, were the main features this week.

New Burley.—Although the offerings were larger, the proportion of low grades was even greater than last week, and the market was very quiet throughout the remainder of the week this season. For all offered, however, there was a good demand at well-established prices, excepting toward close of some of the day's sales, when irregularities in price were met with prompt rejections, but only for trash and coarse grades.

Medium and red filters were scarce and expensive, fully up to former receipts as regards color. Prices for all grades very stiff.
